

Acknowledgements

The authors would like to thank Annette Capel and Alyson Maskell for their support and guidance throughout the project.

The authors and publishers are grateful to the following for reviewing the material during the writing process:

Argentina: Celeste Hayet and Cecilia Rinaldi; Brazil: Litany Ribeiro; Colombia: Ellen Darling; Spain: Emma Heyderman; Turkey: Ali Bilgin, Naci Turgut and Mujgan Yesiloglu.

Development of this publication has made use of the Cambridge English Corpus, a multi-billion word collection of spoken and written English. It includes the Cambridge Learner Corpus, a unique collection of candidate exam answers. Cambridge University Press has built up the Cambridge English Corpus to provide evidence about language use that helps to produce better language teaching materials.

This product is informed by English Profile, a Council of Europe-endorsed research programme that is providing detailed information about the language that learners of English know and use at each level of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). For more information, please visit www.englishprofile.org

The authors and publishers acknowledge the following sources of copyright material and are grateful for the permissions granted. While every effort has been made, it has not always been possible to identify the sources of all the material used, or to trace all copyright holders. If any omissions are brought to our notice, we will be happy to include the appropriate acknowledgements on reprinting.
